Already most men spend most of their lives looking after and waiting upon machines. And the machines are very stern masters. They must be fed with coal, and petrol to drink and oil to wash with, and they must be kept at the right temperature. And if they do not get their meals when they expect them, they grow sulky and refuse to work, or burst with rage and blow up, and spread ruin and destruction all around them. So we have to wait upon them very attentively and do all that we can to keep them in good temper. Already we find it difficult either to work or play without the machines and a time may come when they will rule us all-together just as we rule the animals. Questions : 43. a) Why were the machines first made and what has happened now ? b) How do machines react if they are not given food at the expected time ? Ans. : a) Machines were made to be man's servants ; yet he has grown so dependant upon them that they are in a fair way to become his masters. 2 b) If they do not get their meals when they expect them they grow sulky and refuse to work, or burst with rage and blow up, and spread ruin and destruction around them. 2	4
